

Attica's Universalist history stems from a ladies' aid society which began a church. The first conference was held in the German Lutheran church, Feb. 10, 1870. Meetings were held in various places, with formal organization March 21, 1877.

Historical Wyoming, Vol. 1 No. 5, July 1948, p. 96

Transcribed on 23 Jul 2015 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY