

[Independence (Whitesville), Allegany Co.]

Rev. S. E. Darrow has resigned his post as pastor of the Universalist Society in Independence, Allegany co., N.Y., which he has filled for the last seven years. He has performed a good work in that place, and leaves the Society in a strong and prosperous condition. They have a church and a Sunday School, and are in possession of the elements of still greater success hereafter. We learn they are taking measures to secure another pastor at as early a day as possible. Br. Darrow designs to spend a few months in traveling.
