The N.Y. State Comptroller as you know has for many years held the deed to this Church

My dear Mr Randall: I'm going over a lot of old papers belonging to my father-in-law, yesterday I came across the old deed to the land of the South Stafford Universalist Church.

The gossip has always been that when the church ceased to be used for church purposes the property reverted back to the heirs.

A careful reading of the deed shows that this is not so. The deed simply provides that the property cannot be used for anything but a church.

Gentlemen:

As you no doubt know the insurance on the Brick Church in South Hartford expires August 24th. Before renewing this policy I feel I should advise you that the Church is sadly in need of repair. The wooden steps in the front are falling apart and the rear window in the gable has blown in so the storms can beat in. I have been advised that the ceiling has fallen and the plaster is on the pulpit set. I have not seen this, but some children climbed up and looked into the windows.

OT

The policy is for $1200 and I do not feel the company would wish to carry so much on a building in the condition that one is. Will you please advise me your wishes in the matter.

Dear Mr. Parsons:

I have your letter of the 13th in regard to insurance on the church in South Hartford. I called the company about a binder on this property until Dr. Leining arrives to inspect same and he said a binder could not be issued for more than 30 days, and suggested that a policy be written for 50% of the present one until the building is repaired and then increased to full value. Is this satisfactory to you? If so advise me and I will send you the policy.

Dear Donald :

South Hartford -

Here is another old property that we have held for years.

The roof is leaking - plaster is down --- a large window is broken - and rain enters.

Howard Hanna wants to turn it into a museum - which is a fine use for the property. Only other offer came about two years ago - $400.00 ..... A brick building.

Guess this covers all -- I asked him to send $50 to you, previous to getting the papers.

Sincerely,

Fred G. Leining

Dear Mr. Hanna :

It was a pleasure to meet you in Hartford and South Hartford - to inspect the church property - to give endorsement to your plan to use the building for a museum.

By telephone you offered $600.00 for the property as is.

I have not yet heard from Mr. Kearns as to whether he has removed all of his furniture. The proposition carries this reservation, until I hear from him.

To bind the deal, I suggest that you send a check for $50.00 -

Fifty Dollars to

Our Treasurer, Mr. Donald W. Beebe, 373 Argonne Drive, Kenmore, 23, New York. Mr. Beebe, as attorney, will prepare the papers.

I will notify you concerning Mr. Kearns' property.

Dear Mr. Beebe:

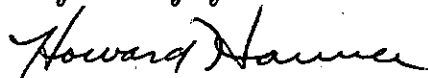

Received your letter of the 26 th and I would like a warrentee deed to the church property if possible.

My reason for asking this is because I know of a case in the village of Belcher N.Y., where the church was sold and later it was discovered that the property on which it stood, belonged to another person.

In former years people were forever giving land to a church or school and then leaving a provision that the land revert back to the original property if they ceased to be used for church or school purposes.

I do not want to make you a lot of additional trouble, but I would not be pleased to find that I had purchase a piece of property and not own the land.

Very truly yours

Howard Hanna
