Be it remembered that on the nineteenth day of August eighteen hundred and thirty six before me William Taylor, one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for said county, came Nathaniel Spurr and Richard Lloyd the above subscribers to me known and they each acknowledged themselves Chairmen of a legal Meeting of the Universalist Society at the time and place and for the purpose above mentioned and that Lewis Spurr, Harvey Howard, Hiram Miller, Oliver Myers, Jr. and Nathan Clark, were chosen Trustees for the year ensuing. Therefore let the proceedings be recorded.
