

[Eames, Newton Spencer]

LEE CENTRE, AUG. 26, 1878

—Newton Spencer Eames, aged 13 years, 8 months and 11 days, son of Supervisor James Eames, departed this life on the evening of the 23d inst. He was taken ill Sunday, the 18th, but was not considered dangerous until Thursday, when inflammation of the bowels set in and he was summoned to a brighter and better land. He was librarian in the Universalist Sunday School, and a member of the Lee Centre Lodge, I.O.G.T. The funeral was largely attended at the house on Sunday. Rev. H. K. White officiated. The remains were deposited in the Lee Corners Cemetery. At a special meeting of the Lee Centre Lodge, No. 478, I.O.G.T., resolutions of condolence were adopted. These attested to his unusual intelligence and urbanity of manner; referred to his promise of great usefulness in the walks of life, and extended sympathy to the bereaved parents and relatives. The lodge attended the funeral, and will drape its room in mourning for 20 days.

OBSERVER

POINT ROCK, Aug. 23, 1878

Daily Sentinel, Rome NY, Tue. 27 Aug 1878

Transcribed on 28 Oct 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY