

[Folsom, George]

GEORGE FOLSOM, 66 [sic], DIES AT HIS BROOKFIELD HOME

Winthrop, Jan. 17.—George Folsom, aged 75, died this morning at his home in Brookdale, town of Stockholm.

Mr. Folsom was born May 26, 1865, a son of David and Esther Lilly Folsom. He married Lois Blodgett in 1879. She died in 1903. Later he married Mrs. Lillian Jenkins who survives. He was a carpenter and had resided a number of years in Brookdale.

Surviving are three children, Rev. Milo Folsom, a Universalist minister of Pittsfield, Me.; Mrs. Bertha Marsh, Winthrop, and Carl Folsom, Gabriels; four grandchildren and several nephews.

Funeral services were held from the home Monday at 1:30 p. m., Prof. H. [Herbert] P. Morrell [Universalist] of St. Lawrence university, officiating. Interment was made in West Stockholm cemetery.

Norwood News, Norwood NY, Wed. 21 Jan 1931

Transcribed on 27 Apr 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY