

[McGuire, Arthur C.]

ARTHUR C. MCGUIRE

Arthur C. McGuire, 60, a life-long resident of Perry and Silver Lake, died at the Perry hospital about 6:30 Monday evening. He had been in ill health for the past two years and was taken to the hospital Friday when his condition became serious. Death was caused by an internal hemorrhage.

He was born Feb. 12, 1873, one of four sons of John and Mathilda Robinson McGuire. He attended school in the Castile district. For many years he has resided at Silver Lake.

Surviving is one brother, Henry, of Perry, from whose home at 134 South Main street funeral services will be held this (Wednesday) afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. J.A. Judge of the First Universalist church will officiate and burial will be beside his mother in Glenwood cemetery.

Perry Herald, Perry NY, Wed. 3 Jan 1934

Transcribed on 17 Sep 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY