

[Merrill, Charles]

Charles Merrill

Charles Merrill, first vice president of the hardware corporation of Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson of San Francisco and New York, and for forty years a resident of this borough, died yesterday at his residence, 316 Clinton avenue, of apoplexy. Mr. Merrill had lived at the Clinton avenue address for twenty-five years and was well known in the Hill section. He was one of the old members of the Universalist Church of Our Father, and was also a member of the Oxford Club, the Crescent Athletic Club and the Montauk Club. He was born at Hallowell, Me., sixty-nine years ago, and went to San Francisco when 18 years old, remaining there twelve years. He is survived by his widow, Abbie Dodge, and three daughters, Emily, Edith and Mrs. Henry A. [Florence] Harrison, who for the past two years has lived in Paris, France. The Rev. Dr. T. [Thomas] E. Potterton will officiate at the funeral services to-morrow afternoon, and the interment will be in Greenwood Cemetery.
