

[Murphy, John W.]

JOHN W. MURPHY DIES AT FLATBUSH RESIDENCE

John W. Murphy, a resident of Flatbush for 27 years, died yesterday at his home, 630 E. 24th st., after a brief illness. He was born in Alton Bay, N. H., and for many years was engaged in shoe manufacturing at Brockton, Mass., where he lived for some time. Of late years he was in the leather business in New York.

Mr. Murphy is survived by his wife, Addie M. Murphy; a daughter, Grace E., and a son, Frederick W. Murphy. He was an active member of All Souls Universalist Church. The Rev. Arthur W. Grose, the pastor, will conduct funeral services at the Murphy home tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment the following day will be at Dover, N. H.

Brooklyn Daily Eagle, New York NY, Sat. 9 Apr 1927

Transcribed on 31 Mar 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY