

[Paddock, Mahala]

DIED.

PADDOCK—In Sherman, N.Y., Aug. 9th, 1888, Mrs. Mahala Paddock, aged 69 years.

For several years she was a sufferer from cancer, and the pain and trial of her last sickness, covering several months, were most intense. Her faith, however, was sufficient for her needs. Always trusting in the wise purposes of God with his children, she manifested a spirit that adds comfort to her friends now she is gone. For thirty-six years she was a consistent and respected member of the Universalist church of this place, and leaves behind, nothing but pleasant memories of a soul always intent on doing good. The funeral was held at the Universalist church Friday, Aug. 10, conducted by Rev. F. [Frank] J. Chase.
