

[Paul, Frances Maria]

Death of Mrs. F. Maria Paul

Mrs. Frances Maria Paul, widow of Holland F. Paul, a former resident of Le Roy, died on Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Stroots, in Boston Harbor, Mich., at the advanced age of 86 years. The remains were brought to Le Roy on Saturday and taken to the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. J. Albert Kenny, on Myrtle street where the funeral was held that afternoon and the remains were interred in Machpelah cemetery.

Mrs. Paul was born in Hartland, Vt., and was united in marriage to Holland F. Paul. They resided for a time in Le Roy and then removed to Iowa, where Mr. Paul took up a tract of land. About 1861 Mr. Paul died and Mrs. Paul being left with seven children, returned to Le Roy and opened a boarding house on Myrtle street which he conducted for a number of years. About twenty years ago she went to Michigan to reside with her daughter.

Mrs. Paul was a woman highly esteemed in the community, a kind wife and loving mother and her children will long cherish her memory. She was a member of the Universalist church and being generous and kind hearted she was ever ready to assist others and lend a helping hand. Her death was due to the infirmities of age.

Mrs. Paul is survived by the following children: E. P. Paul, of Batavia; H. F. Paul, of Jamestown; L. G. Paul, of Benton Harbor, Mich.; Mrs. Abbie Bishop of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Robert P. Stroots, of Benton Harbor, Mich., and Mrs. B. W. Howard, of West Brighton.
