J. P. PEALER OF NELLISTON DIES

Worked in Hix Furniture Plant and Bailey Knitting Co. Most of Life

FORT PLAIN, Jan. 24.—Jeremiah Phillips Pealer, aged 68, died Wednesday morning at the Montgomery sanatorium at Swart Hill. Mr. Pealer had suffered from poor health for some time, but had been at the sanatorium for only three weeks.

He was a life resident of Nelliston and worked for years as a finisher in the Hix Furniture company factory and later in the Bailey knitting mills. Mr. Pealer, who was the son of Elijah and Helen Washburn Pealer, was born in the town of Palatine.

Mr. Pealer is survived by one sister, Mrs. Frank Williams, of Fort Plain; four nieces, Mrs. Blanche Melick and Mrs. Irving Casler of Nelliston; Mrs. Emory Waner of Fort Plain and Mrs. Earl Zimmerman of Syracuse; three nephews, Marshall Bruggeneate and Alphonso Pealer of Nelliston and the Rev. T. J. Farmer, Minneapolis, Minn.

The funeral will be held on Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Catherine Nellis memorial chapel, the Rev. Rufus H. Dix, pastor of the Universalist church officiating. Interment will be made in the Fort Plain cemetery in the spring.
