

[Peck, Lucinda Pettis]

Bristol, N. Y.—Mrs. Lucinda Peck, one of the oldest inhabitants of this town and relict of Thomas Peck, a soldier of the war of 1812, was stricken with paralysis last Tuesday afternoon, and entered into rest yesterday morning. She leaves four sons and two daughters to mourn her loss—Wm. F. Peck, Rochester; Thomas A. Peck, Egypt, Monroe county, N. Y.; David and James Peck, Bristol; Mrs. Sarah A. Root of Somerset, Mich.; and Lucinda Peck of Bristol. Had Mrs. Peck lived until the 27th of this month, she would have been 90 years old. Funeral from the Universalist church tomorrow at 11 o'clock a.m., Rev. R. A. Wheelock of Bristol Center, assisted by Rev. F. B. Peck, officiating. She will be buried in Evergreen Cemetery in the family plot.
