

[Pheteplace, Walter Daniel]

William [Walter] Pheteplace Rites Set Tuesday

Funeral services for William [Walter] Daniel Pheteplace, 78, retired president and general manager of The Pfaulder Company, will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Ingmire & Nagel funeral chapel, Chestnut and Court streets.

Mr. Pheteplace died in his home, 233 Culver Rd., yesterday (Mar. 22, 1947) after a short illness. A member of the Board of Directors at Pfaulder, Mr. Pheteplace retired two years ago from active management of the company. He was born in Rochester and educated in the city public schools and the old Rochester Business University. He had been an executive of the Pfaulder concern since 1897.

The retired industrialist was a member of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, Society of the Genesee, Yonnodio Lodge, F&AM, Rochester Club, Oak Hill Country Club, and the Universalist Church.

He leaves a son, Dr. Willard S. Pheteplace, Detroit, Mich.; two daughters, Mrs. Herman [Eleanor] Genhart and Mrs. Christian [Miriam] Schick of Rochester; two nephews, Harry B. Pheteplace and Walter D. Pheteplace of Rochester; a sister-in-law, Carolyn L. Pheteplace, and four grandchildren.
