

[Sheldon, Ralph A.]

Ralph A. Sheldon Rites Scheduled

Ralph A. Sheldon, 71, of 4562 Cedarvale Road, retired accountant for Smith-Corona Marchant Co., died Sunday night in Columbus, Ohio, where he was visiting. A life resident of this area, he served in World War I. He was secretary and past master of Salina Masonic Lodge and was awarded his 50-year-pin by the lodge three weeks ago. He was a past president of the Past Masters Association and member of the Onondaga Hill Masonic Club. He belonged to the First Universalist Church. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Hazel N. Sheldon, and several nieces and nephews. Services will be conducted at 11:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Greenleaf Funeral Home, the Rev. Ellsworth C. Reamon officiating. Masonic rites will be at 8 p.m. today. Calling hours at the funeral home, 503 W. Onondaga St. Burial will be in Valley Cemetery.

Post-Standard, Syracuse NY, Wed. 11 Oct 1967

Transcribed on 1 Nov 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY