

[Shults, Ila Mae Lawrence]

Mrs. Clyde Shults

Fort Plain, July 18.—The body of Mrs. Clyde Shults, who died at her home in Ossining of childbirth, was brought to this village, and a service was held Saturday at the grave in the Fort Plain cemetery, where the interment was made. The Rev. Herbert F. Moulton, D.D., pastor of the Universalist church, officiated. Mrs. Shults was born in Fort Plain 33 years ago and was a daughter of I. [Isadore] M. Lawrence, now of Middletown [and Amelia E. Steenburg Lawrence, 1861-1913]. Besides her father she is survived by her husband [Clyde Champion Shults] and infant son [Theodore Clyde Shults].
