

[Skinner, Gratia Church]

Mrs. Gartia [Gratia] Skinner, widow of Dolphus Skinner, died in Detroit on Monday, aged nearly 90. The remains arrived here to-day and the funeral was held this afternoon. She was a former resident of Utica. Her husband was during his life a clergyman of the Universalist Church and a prominent champion of its theology and principles. A son, Eugene Skinner of Detroit, with whom she has lived since leaving Utica, survives Mrs. Skinner.
