ALLEN'S HILL

This community was much shocked on hearing of the death of Theodore Sleight, which occurred in Bristol on the 2d inst. His age was 25. He died of typhoid fever, and owing to the malignity of the disease, physicians ordered the body interred the night after his death. He was buried in Lakeview cemetery, Honeoye. Mr. Sleight had always lived in this town until his removal to Bristol about two years ago. His parents are Theodore and Julia Sleight. He leaves a wife and son. He was a young man of much energy and ambition, and his early death is lamented by all who knew him. His parents and wife have the sympathy of all in their sudden bereavement.
