

[Ventress, Julia Crossett]

Deaths
Mrs. Archie Ventress

Mrs. Julia Crossett Ventress, widow of Archie Ventress, passed away at her home in Clarendon Thursday morning, December 2, 1937, aged seventy-one years. She was born in Clarendon, the daughter of John and Sarah Andrews Crossett, and had always resided there.

In 1891 she was united in marriage to Archie Ventress, whose death occurred just nine years ago, on December 2, 1928.

She is survived by two sons, Clayton of Flint, Michigan and Harold of Spencerport; five daughters, Mrs. William Stockham of Holley, Mrs. Floyd Filmer of Jamestown, Miss Hazel Ventress and Miss Elma Ventress of Rochester and Miss Elma Ventress of Hempstead, Long Island, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be from the residence Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. L. [Lewis] H. Robinson of Albion, a former pastor of the Clarendon Universalist Church, of which she was a member, will officiate and interment will be made in Hillside Cemetery.
