

[Whipple, Susan J.]

Susan J. Whipple

A solemn task which tugged mightily at the heartstrings of our people was to say goodbye to Mrs. Marsh Whipple whose sudden death on June 16 shocked her many friends. But we could do no less than she had done for three years, as she lived under the shadow of the end that was hers. Always serene and cheerful, never complaining, going about her days work with only the thought of life and living in mind, she has given us all a memory of staunch faith that will not soon be forgotten nor its example lost upon us. Hosts of friends and a bank of flowers testified to the universal love of this quiet Christian woman.

Mrs. Whipple was in her 68th year, being born in Henrietta of old pioneer stock. She is survived by her husband Marsh Whipple and her daughter Mrs. Alameda W. Gosnell and two grandchildren. Services were from her late home, Rev. Mr. [William Wallace] Rose officiating, and burial at Riverside.

Our Outlook, First Universalist Church, Rochester NY, Fri. 25 Jun 1920

Transcribed on 19 Aug 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY